

MM600-MORT-VP

RGL MM600 Series of Mortice Magnetic Lock – Monitored or Unmonitored

Description

The RGL MM600 series mortice magnetic locks provide a practical and versatile solution for access control in various internal applications. These slimline magnetic locks boast a powerful holding force and come in both monitored and unmonitored options to cater to your specific security needs. With their sleek design, reliable operation, and ease of installation, RGL MM600 series maglocks are a valuable choice for enhancing door security within buildings.

Key Features:

- Slimline Design: The sleek aluminium housing provides a modern aesthetic that complements various door styles.
- 280kg (600lb) Holding Force: Delivers exceptional locking strength for reliable door security.
- 12/24VDC Operation: Offers compatibility with different power supply setups for flexible installation.
- Built-in Surge Protection: Safeguards the unit from electrical spikes and power surges.
- 230mm Cable Length: Provides sufficient reach for most installations.
- Internal Use: Suitable for use within buildings for optimal performance.
- Available in monitored and non-monitored versions

Product Specifications

Weight	1680 kg
Brand	RGL
Form-factor	Mini Maglock, Mortice Maglock
Colours	Aluminium
Power-requirement	12VDC, 12VDC or 24VDC Selectable, 24 VDC
Holding-force	272 Kg, 600 Lbs
Connection-type	Pigtail / cable connection
Lock-options	Monitored, Unmonitored